FROM

P. B. WARBURTON, ESQ., I. C. S.,
FIRST ASSISTANT TO THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE.

To

THE COLLECTOR AND DISTRICT MAGISTRATE,
CIVIL AND MILITARY STATION OF BANGALORE.

Dated Bangalore, the 10th January 1911.

SIR,

I am directed to forward, for your information and favour of communication to the officers concerned, a copy of the Notification of the Government of India in the Foreign Department No. 2477-I. B., dated the 16th December 1910, showing the laws in force in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore.

2. I am to explain that the enactments now applied are the enactments as they stood on the date of the notification, viz., 16th December 1910, and that all future amendments to such enactments will come into force in the Station automatically. In view of the terms of the third proviso to the notification, the second proviso refers only to such further modifications and restrictions in the Acts as relate to (a) points of real substance and (b) points on which the Courts of the Civil and Military Station might reasonably be expected to find real difficulty in applying the third proviso.

I have the honour to be,
SIR,
Your most obedient servant,
F. J. RICHARDS,
for First Assistant Resident.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

Fort William, the 16th December 1910.

No. 2477-I. B.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the Indian (Foreign Jurisdiction) Order in Council, 1902, the Governor General in Council is pleased to apply, to the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore, the enactments specified in the first schedule hereto annexed, in so far as the same may be applicable, subject to any amendments to which such enactments are for the time being subject in British India:

Provided, first, that in the enactments as so applied, references to a Local Government, the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority or the Chief Revenue-authority shall be read as referring to the Resident in Mysore; references to a Secretary to a Local Government as referring to the First Assistant to the Resident in Mysore; references to a High Court as referring to the Court of the Resident in Mysore; and, except when the context otherwise requires, references to British India, or the territories subject to a Local Government as referring to the said Civil and Military Station of Bangalore:

Provided, secondly, that the further modifications and restrictions set forth in the said schedule shall be made in the said enactments as so applied:

Provided, thirdly, that for the purpose of facilitating the application of the said enactments, any Court in the said Civil and Military Station of Bangalore may construe the provisions thereof with such alterations, not affecting the substance, as may be necessary or proper to adapt the same to the matter before the Court.

II. The notifications of the Government of India in the Foreign Department mentioned in the second schedule hereto annexed are hereby cancelled to the extent noted against each:

Provided that all civil and criminal proceedings pending at the date of this notification shall be carried on as if this notification had not been issued, but that, save as afore said, all proceedings commenced, officers appointed or authorised, jurisdictions or powers conferred or confirmed, notifications published, rules or bye-laws made, orders passed and things done under any of the enactments specified in the notifications hereby superseded in the said Civil and Military Station of Bangalore shall be, as far as may be, deemed to have been respectively commenced, appointed or authorized, conferred or confirmed, published, made, passed and done under the corresponding enactments specified in this notification.
